

A Clean Open Letter to Partners

Dear partners:

Thank you for your long-term support and cooperation with our company!

"Honesty, discipline, integrity and cooperation" is the consistent rule for external business dealings of Han's Laser Technology Industry Group Co., Ltd., its product centers, branches, wholly-owned subsidiaries, and holding subsidiaries (hereinafter referred to as "Han's Group"). In order to maintain a healthy and friendly cooperative relationship with all partners and share the opportunities and dividends brought by the healthy development of the company, we hope that all partners will work together to create a clean, honest and harmonious cooperation atmosphere based on the principle of long-term cooperation, mutual benefit and win-win results.

A good environment requires the joint efforts of both parties. All partners are welcome to supervise and report the bad behavior of our staff in the process of business dealings. In addition, we also remind all partners to stick to the bottom line of honest cooperation and jointly maintain a healthy, honest and harmonious cooperative relationship. For violations of the relevant provisions of the Integrity Transaction Agreement signed by both parties, once verified, Han's Group will stop all business cooperation with its partners who seek unreasonable interests; it will also impose penalty on these partners for bad behaviors in accordance with relevant management regulations and reserves the right to use legal means.

We sincerely hope that you can work with Han's Group to jointly create a harmonious, healthy and win-win cooperation partnership culture, and work together towards a higher development goal!
